THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black,
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back,*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading:Karren Berndt

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes

There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every affair under the heavens. A time to give birth, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant. A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to tear down, and a time to build.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance. A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them; a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces. A time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away.

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to be silent, and a time to speak. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

What profit have workers from their toil? I have seen the business that God has given to mortals to be busied about. God has made everything appropriate to its time, but has put the timeless into their hearts so they cannot find out, from beginning to end, the work which God has done.

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: “Psalm 23”

“Shepherd me O’ God, beyond my wants beyond my fears, from death into life.”

Second Reading: Kathy Berndt

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: “Alleluia”

Gospel & Homily: Father John Zurek

Please respond, "Lord, hear our prayer."

For all of our family and friends who have circled around us throughout this difficult time, may they know that their kindness and compassion will always be held in grateful remembrance. We ask that God bless them, in times of trouble, with the same type of loving support that they have so selflessly given. We pray to the Lord.

For all those who have dedicated their lives to the service and education of our children, may God continue to give them the same vision, patience and dedication Dan had toward his "Superstars". We pray to the Lord.

For Barbara that God grant her solace in her grief so that she may find comfort and peace in the lifetime of joyous memories of their 50 years of marriage as a source of healing in difficult days ahead. We pray to the Lord.

For all of the deceased members of our family - Dan's father Clarence, Dan's mother Verna, Dan's father-in-law Anthony, Dan's mother-in-law Charlotte and Auntie Bee and Uncle George, we pray that their reunion in heaven be joyous as they gather together again at the table of our Heavenly Father. We pray to the Lord.

We pray for Daniel a cherished husband, may he be welcomed by our Heavenly Father to enjoy everlasting peace and happiness in the loving embrace of Christ's promise of eternal life. We pray to the Lord
